

Ecological Organization Notes

Name _____

Date _____

Per _____

Define the Following:

Ecology:

Habitat:

Niche:

Biotic:

Abiotic:

Title:	Date:
---------------	--------------

Essential Question:

Student Developed Questions:

Relationship: _____
Description:
Detailed example:

Relationship: _____
Description:
Detailed example:

Relationship: _____
Description:
Detailed example:

Relationship: _____
Description:
Detailed example:

Relationship: _____
Description:
Detailed example:

Types of Interactions Between Organisms

Competition: when organisms compete for a limited resource such as food, habitat or a mate.

Commensalism: one species benefits from the interaction while the other is not affected (neither helped nor harmed).

Mutualism: both species benefit.

Parasitism: one species benefits while the other is harmed, but is not killed immediately.

Predation: one species benefits while the other is harmed, and is killed.